INTRODUCTION

Astrology is eyes of the four Vedas created by the Absolute God. The Maharishis have given Astrology to this world. It is a Vedic science because it is a part of the Vedas. Astrology is described in detail in the Atharvana Veda. Astrology has three divisions. Ganitha Skandham (Mathematical) Hora Skandham (Horary) Samhita Skandham. (Mundane) It has been said about the mathematical methods that are integrated in the Ganitha Skandham as a mass. It has three divisions as: Siddhantha (Astronomy) Tantra (Trick) and Karanam.

Mathematics is explained from the beginning of creation in Siddhanta, and in the beginning of 'Yuga' (an age of time) in Tantra and in the beginning of the Ishta Saha Varusha in Karana.

It is explained in detail about the Bhava (Houses) in Jathaka Skandham. It has two divisions as:

Hora (Horai)

Tajikam.

Hora is a branch of the Indian system of astrology known as Jyotiṣa. It deals with the finer points of predictive methods, as distinct from Siddhanta (astronomy proper) and Saṃhita (mundane astrology). The concept of Hora is applied everywhere in astrology from the time of origin of Astrology. We will look at how the Hora contributes to astrology on prediction and how it is relating with birth horoscope and Prasna (Horary) system.

Hora

According to Indian astrology, a horoscope is prepared at the time of the child's birth. The word 'Hora' translates into 'Hour' which signifies the prominence of each hour. The value of a hora is one hour. That is, there are a total of 24 Horas in 24 hours of Ahoratra that is day and night. A Lagna in a horoscope consist of 30 degrees and two hours duration. But a Hora is half of a lagna i.e 15 degrees. This is how there are two horas under one Rashi or horoscope. Each Hora named with 7 planets starting from Sun, Moon, Mars, Mercury, Jupiter, Venus and Saturn (except the nodes Rahu and Ketu). The respective planet is the ruling planet for the particular Hora.

Hora is calculated according to the geological theory. Our solar system consists of the star Sun, and everything bound to it by gravity - the planets Mercury, Venus, Earth, Moon, Mars, Jupiter, Saturn. The planets are divided into two constellations, Between the Sun and the Earth,

The planets orbiting beyond the Earth.

It is considered as starting from slow rotation to fast rotation. The Hora constellation is located in such a way that the rotational speed increases one after the other over the period of time it takes to orbit the zodiac.

The orbit of the Sun, the planets that may be closest to the Sun. Distant planets. All of this has been calculated by the time it takes for gravitational force and further light beams to form planetary personality traits. The Hora period is for the other seven planets except the two planets Rahu and Ketu.

Hora Prasanam

The Hora Prasna Shastra composed by Sreekasyapa Mahamuni is one of the most ancient of the astrology scriptures.

As per the Hora Prasnam, if a person is approaching the astrologer for consultation, the astrologer can predict and give solution to the problem based on the hora during the time of visit. Even without seeing the horoscope, an astrologer can answer the question. Hora Shastra, inspired by Sage Srikasyapa, is wonderful in Prasna Shastra.

According to Hora Shastra, the horoscope is based on the horoscope, the horoscope of the horoscope, the horoscope of the horoscope, and the planetary horoscope. For Hora Prasnam, the astrologer should take care about the planetary position at the time of visit with degree and the Hora at the time of visit. And the astrologer should analyse the position of hora lord and the house lord related to the question whether friendly planets, or enemy planets etc.

First, we have to check the hora at the time of visit and the planetary position of the hora lord on that day.

The planets that placed at 2, 5, 7, 9 should be ordered based on the degree of placement.

If the hora lord is in exaltation house but conjoined with malefic planet, then the native cannot enjoy the benefits though everything available.

If the hora lord is placed with friendly planet's house but the friendly planet is conjoined with malefic planet, then there are no benefits enjoyed by the native.

If the hora lord is placed in exaltation house and aspect with friendly and benific planets, then the native will get all the benefits with less effort.

It is necessary to see whether the moon is waxing or waxing.
